

Yi Wei – Yin Wood Ram Year

“Disasters and calamities happen all the time in all parts of the World every year” quoting my Shifu Master Joseph Yu.....they can be natural and/or man-made. Chinese metaphysical studies can be utilized for forecasting, but just like the weather, nothing is absolute. Since everything within our Universe is connected in a multi-dimensional fashion, we can make predictions, but the accuracy is dependent upon various factors, which can be summarized in the following classic Chinese stanza:

1. 一命 - Destiny
2. 二运 - Fate
3. 三风水 - Feng Shui
4. 四积功德 - Karma/Accumulate good deeds
5. 五读书 - Education/Studies
6. 六名 - Name
7. 七相 - Physiognomy
8. 八敬神 - Respect for the gods/higher intelligence
9. 九交贵人 - Befriend honorable people
10. 十养生 - Self cultivation
11. 十一择业与择偶 - Good choice of career and spouse
12. 十二趋吉要避凶 - Welcome the auspicious and avoid the inauspicious

For Destiny & Fate, we can gather the information from our own destiny chart; Feng Shui of course is the study of what is within our environment, and the rest is dependent upon our own choice and action in everyday life, at different point in time and space, in order to make the most of the Balance and Harmony between the San Cai/Three Powers = Heaven, Man and Earth.

For the upcoming Yi Wei year – Yin Wood above the Ram – which comprises of Yin Earth, Yin Fire and Yin Wood .....will be a year of insidious growth and subtle changes.

Since the Ram clashes with the Ox in the Bazi/Four Pillars of Destiny analysis, people who have the Ox in their destiny charts will experience some ups or downs in their lives during this solar year. And for people who were born in the previous Yi Wei year (1955), they have completed the whole Time Cycle of 60 years from the time they were born.....some major changes in life can be mitigated by their own positive action, preparation, personal lifestyle changes and attitude this year. Of course good Feng Shui in their environment will have an overall positive impact on their lives.

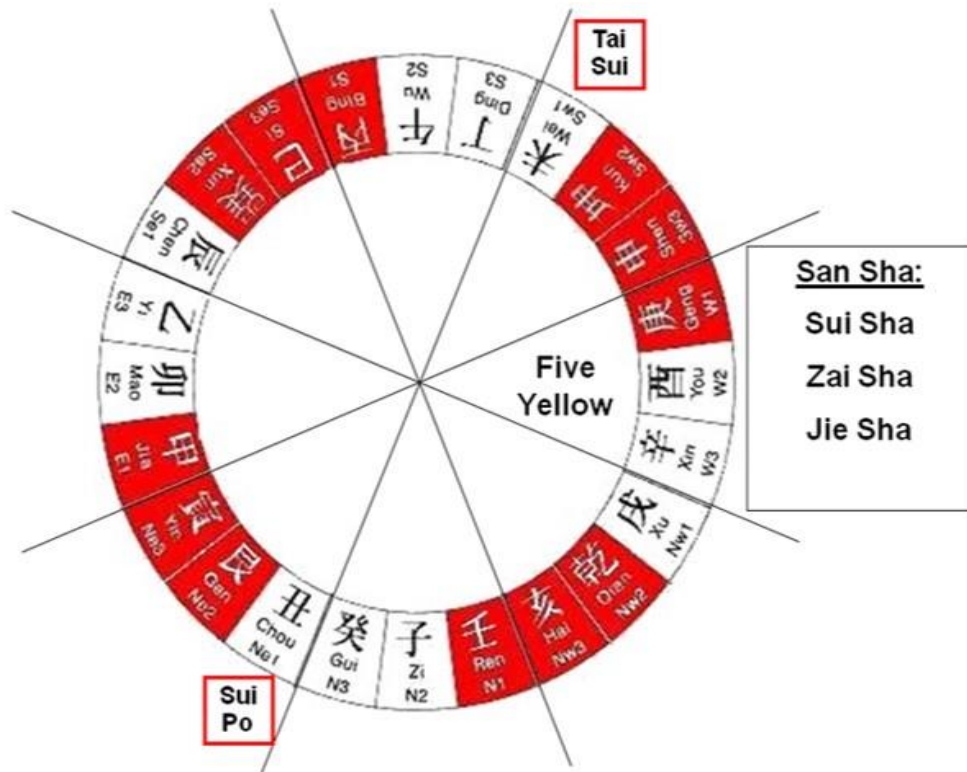

For more detailed look at the effects of the Yin Wood Ram on each person, we need to examine each individual's Bazi/Four Pillars of Destiny Chart - based on the year, month, day, hour and place of birth, in order to fully analyze the implication upon each individual's life within this solar year. The most important factor is the individual's Day Master, the Yang Element present on the day you were born.

The Year of the Yin Wood Ram (2015) Feng Shui Guide:

1. Tai Sui is in Wei/Ram – South-Southwest - (30 degrees) –
Do not sit facing Tai Sui, which is the strongest inauspicious qi of the year, and the leader of all the Annual Sha Qi, even if it is one of your good directions according to Ba Zhai. Do not go against the Tai Sui. In case of construction or renovation, select an auspicious day for commencement of the project. Avoid major earth digging, hammering and loud commotions within this sector.
2. Sui Po is in Chou/Ox – North-Northeast - (30 degrees) –
The annual qi that challenges the Tai Sui, as Chou/Ox clashes Wei/Ram directly. It should not be activated to annoy Tai Sui, e.g. by major earth digging, hammering and loud commotions within this sector, and select an auspicious day for commencement of any project.
3. San Sha (Three Killings) is in the West (45 degrees) –
  - Jie Sha (Robbery Sha – the 15 degrees between 247.5 to 262.5 degrees)
  - Zai Sha (Calamity Sha – the 15 degrees between 262.5 to 277.5 degrees)
  - Sui Sha (Year Sha – the 15 degrees between 277.5 to 292.5 degrees)

Tai Sui Wei/Ram belongs to the Wood Alliance – Wei/Ram, Hai/Pig and Mao/Rabbit. San Sha Metal is in direct conflict against Wood, we need to confront this Sha Qi by facing it. Do not sit with your back towards it. Any major work in these sectors are not advisable, date selection will be very helpful for construction commencement on an auspicious day.

4. Five Yellow is in the West (45 degrees) – A strong negative Earth Qi, which could cause calamities, bankruptcy, obstacles and accidents. We can harmonize this Qi by having Metal sounds within this part of the house - soft beautiful piano music, a chiming clock with round moving metal pendulum, etc. It is not advisable to disturb this area, e.g. dig earth, hammer nails, construction, etc.

Xuan Kong Fei Xing Guide:

According to Xuan Kong Fei Xing – the Flying Stars School of Feng Shui arrival of the new year for 2015 will have different impact on the Natal Chart/existing Qi of any building, and subsequently to the lives of the people living or working within the space; in terms of prosperity, health, romance, relationship, academic/career success and general well being.

Here is a brief summary of the Nine Annual Stars for the Yi Wei year:

The Nine Stars	Palace		Impact
3 – The Phantom of Misfortune	Central		Robbery, competition, arguments
4 – The Clever & Indecent Nymph	Northwest	Qian	Academic success, romance
5 – The Devil of Ferocity	West	Dui	Negativity, danger, calamity
6 – The Angel of Gallantry	Northeast	Gen	Career success, authority
7 – The Spirit of Solemnity	South	Li	Gossip, back stabbing
8 – The Angel of Wealth & Happiness	North	Kan	Steady growth in prosperity
9 – The Angel of Vigor	Southwest	Kun	Instigation, happy event, promotion
1 – The Angel of Sheng Qi	East	Zhen	Wisdom, mobility, inspiration
2 – The Monarch of Sickness	Southeast	Xun	Sickness, failure

Feng Shui is not static; we need to make changes constantly according to the passage of time on the individual space, in order to bring Sheng Qi and avoid Sha Qi in all the different aspects of our life.

Most importantly – self-awareness.....knowing yourself according to your destiny chart, your strengths and weaknesses, your approach and attitude, your own choice of action/inaction will have the biggest impact on your own life.
